

MR. CHAS. WALKE HURT.HE FALLS TWELVE FEET AND IS BADLY SHAKEN UP.*Mrs. T. D. Burton and Mr. Thomas Williams Dead—Mortality Among Infants. Brief Mention.*MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES. No. 121 Hull Street, Beattie Block, 1. Mr. Charles Walke, a well-known and popular citizen of Manchester, had a narrow escape from serious injury or death Sunday night. He went up into the attic of his residence to shut a window, when the flooring gave way and he fell through to the floor below, sustaining a very severe shaking up, which will leave him sore for a week to come. Fortunately, however, no bones were broken and he will soon be able to attend to his duties.MRS. BURTON DEAD.

Mrs. A. E. Burton died at 6 o'clock Sunday evening at her home, on Hull street. She was a great sufferer, having been in ill-health for five years past.

She leaves a husband, Mr. T. D. Burton, and five children—Misses W. H., T. E., and C. M.; Mrs. L. Bell; Miss A. L. Burton, and Mrs. R. L. Bell. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from Bainbridge Street Baptist church, at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. L. R. Thornhill conducting the exercises. The burial was in Maury Cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas Williams died at her home, near Maury Cemetery, in Chesterfield county, at 10 A. M., Saturday. The deceased was sixty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and four children. The funeral took place Sunday at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. R. Haught conducted the services. A solo was sung by Mr. W. J. Morrison.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

Walter V. Williams, the six-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nelson, died at the residence of his parents, 1420 Hull street, at 9 o'clock Sunday night. The deceased was sixty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and four children. The funeral took place Sunday at 3 o'clock. Rev. L. R. Thornhill conducting the services. The burial was in Maury Cemetery.

Mrs. Thomas Williams died at her home, near Maury Cemetery, in Chesterfield county, at 10 A. M., Saturday. The deceased was sixty-nine years of age and leaves a wife and four children. The funeral took place Sunday at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. R. Haught conducted the services. A solo was sung by Mr. W. J. Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sudder, of the east Thirteenth street have the sympathy of many friends on the death of their infant child. Rev. Dr. L. R. Thornhill conducted the funeral service at the house yesterday afternoon. "Some Sweet Day" was sung by Mr. W. J. Morrison.

Gordon, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Leard, died at 8 o'clock Sunday night at the home of his parents, near Bon Air. The remains were interred in the family burying-ground yesterday afternoon.

A MERRY OUTING.

Quite an enjoyable tea was given at Forest Hill Park last Friday night by a number of young people. Tea and refreshments were served, after which games were played until the last car.

Among those present were the following: Miss Ruth Gallagher, Belle Fahr, Carrie Brown, Lotte Brandis, Jessie Brookwood, and Miss Scott of Richmond; Mrs. Hanley and Graham; John Showell, Robert Crawford, Vernon Priddy, Maury Perdue, and Mrs. Goode. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Campbell and Mr. A. J. Gallagher.

BRIEF MENTION.

Yesterday morning between 12 and 3 o'clock some one broke through the window of Mr. J. W. Richardson's room, and stole his trousers. Two pockets were two knives and a silver watch and chain. Later an attempt was made to enter Mr. and Mrs. Blanckenship's house.

Lottie Hix and Major Johnson were before Mayor Maurice yesterday morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets Saturday night. They were fined $10 each.

HOWITZERS' OUTING.

Ocean View the Place That They Have Selected.

Richmond's fine company, the Howitzers, will this year enjoy a grand treat. They propose to take their annual outing at Ocean View, where, in addition to the usual martial sports, the boys can enjoy the salt breezes and daily dips in the surf.

The company will leave Richmond next Friday, August 7th, sending down ahead of them their tents, culinary articles, etc., also a Gatling gun and three-inch rifle. While in camp the Howitzers will observe strict military order and regulations, and by daily practice they will add to their already fine reputation as gunners.

Property Transfers.

Richmond: Grace D. and W. C. Goodall to S. E. Carter, wife of R. W. Carter, 29 feet on west side delividers street near Cumberland, $2,400.

Samuel P. Lathrop's executors to Olevia V. Jacobs' trustee, 28 1/2 feet on north side Main street between Second and Third, $5,000.

Henrico: H. Brown Haler to J. A. Hillsman, certain personal property at No. 1807 and 1809 Main street, $1,000.

Charles Polkeder to Charles T. Stith, 100 feet on Main street, southeast corner Rowland, subject to deed of trust for $3,000, $3,000.

Will Remain in Jail.

In the Hunting Court yesterday a nolle prosequi was entered in the case of Jerome Disdale alias "Kid," who was arrested during the recent reunion for picking the pocket of a negro. He had to go back to jail, however, because it is held by Justice Critchfield for twelve months under $1,000 bond as a suspicious character.

The Bryan-Swall Campagn Club will hold a meeting at the Grays' Armory next Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Light Committee to be held in the Council chamber at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. Lee King, Vice-comptroller of New South Court, Jr. O. U. A. M., No. 8, was presented last Friday night with a beautiful ring, with the emblem of the organization engraved upon it.

Rev. Dr. L. R. Thornhill left yesterday to attend the Middle District Baptist Association conference at Tobaccoville.

Mr. R. B. Petzold, of Newport News, arrived in the city Sunday night, and spent yesterday with his brother, Mr. Robert Petzold.

Miss Mary B. Wicker left Saturday afternoon for Charlottesville to visit friends and relatives for several weeks.

Mr. Paxton J. Wood left yesterday morning on his wheel for Powhatan to spend his vacation with relatives and friends.

The Bryan-Swall Campagn Club will hold a meeting at the Grays' Armory next Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Sergeant Tomlinson, on information received by telegraph from Baltimore, arrested a negro burglar in the post office building yesterday in the act of robbing it.

The man's name is John Spivak alias Willie Williams alias Henry Hall. He escaped from Canton jail last week. The Sergeant found a razor on Spivak. The Baltimore authorities were notified of his arrest.

Justice John's Services Appreciated.

When Justice John reached his office yesterday morning, he found a pretty woman on his desk.

Charles Rosser, who has been sent to jail by Justice John more than a dozen times, made a paper arch representing a crown and liberty bell.

Chancery Court.

In the Chancery Court yesterday Julia King qualified as executor of John King, deceased.

A Large Crowd Regardless of the Weather.

Notwithstanding the dark clouds that hung over the city and the cooling rain-drops that fell Sunday morning, the favorite of all excursions, the "Tribby," steamed out of Byrd-Street Station promptly on time, with one combined car and nine coaches, all crowded with Richmonders, bound for the sea-shore via the Norfolk and Western railroad. The passengers consisted mostly of ladies and children, all determined not to remain in the heated city, even if it did rain. The run was made, Richmond, 104 miles, in two hours and thirty minutes.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1896.

F. Leibermuth, Richmond, Va., 1 box Tobacco, GEORGE W. MAYO, Auctioneer.

au-tu-tu

FOR SALE.

We have a party who wishes to buy a nice medium-sized house up town, with a good lot. List your property with us. We may sell it for you.

T. M. WOODHORN & CO., Real Estate Agents, 1913 east Main street.

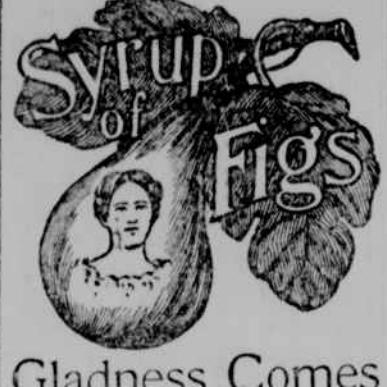

au-tu-tu

FOR SALE.

W. H. McCARTHY, Secretary.

S. McG. FISHER, Assistant Secretary.

iy-1-1m Travelling Passenger Agent.

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By Pollard & Bagby, Real Estate Auctioneers, Nos. 5 and 7 north Eleventh street.

TRUSTEE'S SALE

of a Valuable Farm of About 200 Acres, Situated in Goochland County, Va., About Three Miles from Goochland Courthouse, Known as "Cock's Tavern."

In execution of a deed of trust to the undersigned, dated September 1, 1884, duly recorded in Goochland County Court clerk's office, Deed Book 47, page 56, default having been made in the payment of a portion of the debt therein secured, and under instructions from the trustee, I will sell by auction on the premises on

MAKE ENGAGEMENTS NOW.

Up-to-date water, invigorating air, unsurpassed—entire unexcelled cuisine, fishing, rowing, hunting, picturesques drives, and all the comforts of home, with superb accommodations.

With ticket agent rates to FORD & McDOWELL, proprietors and managers, Waynesboro, Va. iy-2-1u.thu-2m Parties living out of the city who take advantage of this offer may send a reply to their advertisements sent to THE TIMES office. The Times will not forward these replies.

For a quarter of a century under the management of PHILIP E. BROWN, iy-2-1u.thu-2m

MOUNTAIN TOP HOTEL AND SPRINGS

Rockfish Gap, Blue Ridge Mountains, 2,000 Feet Above Sea Level.

An historic Virginia resort, overlooking two famous valleys. Many fine views, delightful temperature. Valuable mineral water. Reasonable rates. Only 12 miles from Richmond by C. & O. rail-way. Address

MESSRS. MASSIE & CO., Attn. Va. iy-2-1m

EXCURSIONS.

THE POPULAR SUNDAY C & O EXCURSIONS $1.00 ROUND TRIP

SPECIAL FAST TRAIN Leaves BYRD-STREET STATION EVERY 8:30 AM SUNDAY

Clean, Quick Ride to the Sea.

THURSDAY, THE 6TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 6 O'CLOCK P. M.

that well-known, DETACHED BRICK RESIDENCE, No. 22 NORTH TWELFTH STREET (EAST SIDE), OPPOSITE CAPITOL STREET, AND

THOSE TWO SUBSTANTIALLY BUILT WAREHOUSES, Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET (SOUTH SIDE), BETWEEN FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH STREETS.

In execution of the provisions of a certain trust deed to the undersigned, dated August 1, 1895, and of record in Richmond Chancery Court, in Deed Book 155 "C," page 203, we will offer for sale, upon the premises, on that well-known, DETACHED BRICK RESIDENCE, No. 22 NORTH TWELFTH STREET (EAST SIDE), now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

THURSDAY, THE 6TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 6 O'CLOCK P. M.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.

ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1896, AT 1 O'CLOCK P. M.

large, recently constructed, substantial BRICK WAREHOUSE, designated as Nos. 140 and 146 CARY STREET, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, and the property, as above mentioned, now in the occupancy of Robert Wendenburg, Esq., containing a large number of rooms. The lot has a front of 70 feet on the east side of Twelfth street and runs back about 150 feet to a wide paved alley. This is truly "old Virginia home," and for comfort and convenience it will be surprised to find that on all sides there is a full range of ample grounds, and numerous outbuildings, and so situated that whilst a few minutes walk will bring one to the centre of business, yet in a quiet, residential section of our city.